

WE PROUDLY PRESENT OUR NEW LIMES- WiS -INITIATIVE

The Flying Nanny Service

What is the mission? To help parent scientists to organize their family and academic duties.

What is it? Professional nannies assure childcare at your home when normal day care is not feasible (illness, outside regular day care hours), enabling the parents to go to work or to participate in work-related activities.

Who may use this service? Scientists, affiliated with the SFB645, 704 or TRR83, who have young children (0-12 years).
